

2021-22

Facilitated by Kelly Ashley, author of
Word Power: Amplifying vocabulary instruction

ONLINE SESSIONS

For English, Reading, EY or KS1 Phase Leads and Teachers of Reception, Year 1 and Year 2

COST:
FREE

DAY 1

Wednesday
24th November 2021

- Addressing the word gap
- Understanding explicit and implicit vocabulary instruction
- Exploring the Word Power 'big ideas'

DAY 2

Wednesday
19th January 2022

- Choosing words to teach - 5-step criteria
- Unlocking the power of communication

DAY 3

Wednesday
9th March 2022

- Teaching language in context
- Charging and recharging the build word memory

All events: 2pm - 3.15pm

TO BOOK CLICK HERE:

Kelly Ashley

Kelly Ashley is the author of Word Power: Amplifying vocabulary instruction (2019) and has 20 years of experience in education holding teaching, leadership and advisory roles in the UK and America.

In her current role as director of Kelly Ashley Consultancy, she enjoys working as a freelance consultant with schools and organisations across the UK and abroad, offering bespoke training and support on all aspects of the primary English curriculum with a keen interest in vocabulary development and language acquisition.

Kelly has firm roots in educational research, supporting schools to explore evidence-informed solutions to school improvement. She has designed and facilitated programmes of professional development using her Word Power approach for several large-scale school improvement projects across the UK.

For more information, visit www.kellyashleyconsultancy.wordpress.com or follow her on Twitter @kashleyenglish.